HANK™ is a lamp, a hanger and a design object that can be used to show off personal style. It's a welcoming source of light and a functional piece of furniture. It can be what ever you want it to be. Clean, sleek and luxurious or stylish, personal and vibrant.

Use it to light up hallways, bedrooms, dressing rooms or as a hanger displaying personal style. Pretty things look much better outside of closets and drawers, especially when they are lighted. With HANK™ you're reminded of all the nice things that you have.

Designed for the future and crafted from high quality materials you can rest assured that your HANK™ will last. You can keep it lit more and still feel good about yourself since the light source consists of an energy efficient LED-panel. HANK is an ideal solution when wardrobe space is scarce.
